

Daily Answer Writing: 5 July 2025

Q1. "The PM-POSHAN scheme reflects India's commitment to child nutrition and educational equity, but implementation gaps hinder its full potential."

Discuss. (250 words)

Relevant UPSC GS Paper 2 Syllabus:

- Governance
- Government policies and interventions for development
- Issues relating to development and management of education and health

Directives to Approach (Brief):

- Intro: Define PM-POSHAN and objective.
  - Achievements: Enrolment, retention, nutrition.
  - Challenges: Funding, discrimination, teacher workload.
  - Way Forward: Local menu flexibility, tech-based audits, fund reforms.
  - Conclusion: Strengthen implementation to fulfill intent.
-

Q2. "Youth empowerment in agrifood systems is essential not just for rural development, but also for global food security and economic resilience."

Examine. (250 words)

Relevant UPSC GS Paper 3 Syllabus:

- Agriculture: Major cropping patterns, e-technology, agri-marketing
- Inclusive Growth and Employment
- Food Security
- Issues relating to poverty and hunger

Directives to Approach (Brief):

- Intro: Link youth and agrifood systems.
- Significance: GDP, food security, rural development.
- Challenges: NEETs, climate risk, access to resources.
- Way Forward: Jobs, inclusion, investment, migration support.
- Conclusion: Youth in agri is key to long-term growth.